

Write a Winning Essay and Be a Speaker
at Women's March Napa Valley
Saturday, January 19, 2019

Women's March Napa Valley is casting its net out for speakers for the next public, community-wide March and

We are looking for your unique story!

Please adhere to the following:

- We welcome participants of all ages and genders;
- Essays should be between 500-1000 words (and, if selected, may be edited for presentation);
- Your "story" should include one or more of the following:

- an experience that changed you;
- a lesson(s) learned;
- a passion(s) and/or testimony particular to you, your community, your family, friends and/or colleagues;
- "speaks" to the political climate of our time.

-- Selected essays will be "vetted" with Women's March leaders and must be rehearsed with leaders prior to the Jan. 19 March.

-- Napa County residents will receive priority in final selections.

-- Remember that if your essay is selected, you will be sharing your story with thousands of attendees. Make sure that what you write is clearly accessible and has the power to engage our diverse communities!

Good luck!

We thank you for your thoughts and the time you have given to write and submit your essay.

- Deadline for submission is MONDAY, DEC. 3. Entries must be submitted with the information requested below. Email to: evywar@gmail.com.
- You will be notified the week after DECEMBER 3 if your essay has been selected.
- Winners will also receive WMNV "swag," recognition on all WMNV media (FB, Mail Chimp, pre-March info, NV Register) and our heartfelt thanks for a job well done!
